Holders of Series T, FT and IT units of a Dynamic fund (the "Fund") will receive stable monthly distributions consisting of net income and/or net realized capital gains and/or, in certain circumstances, a return of capital. These distributions are not guaranteed and may change at any time at our discretion. Any net income and net realized capital gains in excess of the monthly distributions described above will be distributed annually. For additional information, please refer to the Fund's profile found in the current simplified prospectus applicable to the Fund.

You may elect to receive all or part of a distribution described above in cash. Please note that cash distributions are not available for registered plans. Please specify below the percentage of distributions to be paid to you in cash and/or to be reinvested in additional Series T, FT or IT units of the Fund.
